Dear Sir/Madam,

North Midlands RFU – Election of RFU Council Representative 2020-2023

North Midlands RFU currently has two representatives sitting on the RFU Council; their role is to represent all rugby clubs within this Constituent Body.

One of these positions is subject to an election in March 2020; the other position will be subject to a similar election next year. The term of office for each is three years commencing on 1st August. The Rules permit elected representatives to seek re-election on two further occasions.

There are no defined personal qualifications. A candidate is not required to be a member of a Club or have served on the North Midlands RFU Committee.

For full details of please refer to sections within Rule 18, of RFU Handbook 2019-20.
