

North Midlands Competitions Group

Are you passionate about ensuring your adult male players have games to play in, at the times/frequency that work for them?

Do you have innovative ideas about how to help clubs to retain players through local competitions and playing opportunities?

Norths Mids RFU are forming a new volunteer group tasked with overseeing the management and delivery of North Midlands competitions and playing opportunities for adult male rugby players (in partnership with the Shropshire, Greater Birmingham and Worcestershire & Herefordshire domestic unions).

Some of the areas of responsibility of the group will include:

- Merit tables and cups.
- Flexible/social competitions and other playing opportunities.
- Representation for North Midlands clubs on the Midlands Regional Organising Committee (MROC).
- Develop/maintain key relationships i.e., Clubs, Domestic Unions, Referee Society, RFU staff, University and College sectors.
